

TECHNICAL BULLETIN
Mitsubishi Plastics Composites America Inc.
05/01/2014

Color Consistency on Projects

Mitsubishi Plastics Composites America paints our ALPOLIC aluminum skins using an exclusive die coating process which produces a finish which meets and exceeds the industry's highest quality and performance standards.

If a project requires ALPOLIC MCM in multiple widths, provided that all panels are ordered together and produced in a single production run, we can guarantee that color variation between widths will meet the same color consistency standards as a single color, single width production run.

James Moses PE
Technical Services Manager
ALPOLIC

Mitsubishi Plastics Composites America, Inc.
401 Volvo Parkway
Chesapeake, VA 23320
757-382-7843
FAX 757-436-1896